TOM CARR

Tom Carr (1956) works and lives in Sant Quirze del Vallès. He is a professor at the Escola Massana in Barcelona. Tom Carr's work explores architectural shapes in space and the ongoing question of equilibrium and perspective.

His outstanding outdoor sculptures and urban art projects can be found in cities across Europe and North America, such as Agulla at the Mirò Foundation, Barcelona and Seed & Helix, the landmark of Société Générale in Paris.

Tom Carr's light projections have been featured at the Musée d'Art Moderne de Céret, France, the Science Museum in Barcelona and the Museo Nacional Centro de Arte Reina Sofia in Madrid, Spain.
